When you first access www.HOMES.mil, you will see this disclosure page.

Read this information and then select ACCEPT if you agree to the disclosure and consent statements.

A screenshot of the HOMES.mil disclosure page. The page has a white background with a dark blue border on the left and right sides. At the top left is the HOMES.mil logo. Below the logo is a paragraph of text: "You are accessing a U.S. Government (USG) Information System (IS) that is provided for USG-authorized use only. By using this IS (which includes any device attached to this IS), you consent to the following conditions:". This is followed by a bulleted list of five conditions. At the bottom of the text area are two buttons: "DECLINE" and "ACCEPT". The "ACCEPT" button is highlighted in blue and has a checkmark icon. At the bottom of the page is a decorative graphic consisting of several overlapping wavy lines in blue, red, and white.

You are accessing a U.S. Government (USG) Information System (IS) that is provided for USG-authorized use only. By using this IS (which includes any device attached to this IS), you consent to the following conditions:

- The USG routinely intercepts and monitors communications on this IS for purposes including, but not limited to, penetration testing, COMSEC monitoring, network operations and defense, personnel misconduct (PM), law enforcement (LE), and counterintelligence (CI) investigations.
- At any time, the USG may inspect and seize data stored on this IS.
- Communications using, or data stored on, this IS are not private, are subject to routine monitoring, interception, and search, and may be disclosed or used for any USG-authorized purpose.
- This IS includes security measures (e.g., authentication and access controls) to protect USG interests—not for your personal benefit or privacy.
- Notwithstanding the above, using this IS does not constitute consent to PM, LE or CI investigative searching or monitoring of the content of privileged communications, or work product, related to personal representation or services by attorneys, psychotherapists, or clergy, and their assistants. Such communications and work product are private and confidential. See User Agreement for details.
